

Knox County Bank Robbers Caught in South Carolina

Thursday, 05 June 2008

Three people accused of robbing a Mascot bank last month were arrested Wednesday in Walhalla, South Carolina. Thirty-three year old Eric Bradley, 24 year old Joshua Douglas, and 25 year old Tina Rogers are charged with aggravated robbery of the First Choice Community Credit Union on May 28th.

All three were living in an apartment on Asheville Highway at the time of the robbery. The two male suspects have criminal histories involving aggravated burglary, vandalism, DUI, public intoxication, drugs, and assault. They will be extradited to Knox County in the next few days.

This is a joint investigation being conducted by the KCSO and the FBI.
