

Patrol

Wednesday, 24 December 2008

The Sheriff's Office includes five patrol detachments – Adam, Baker, Charlie, David and Echo Shifts. The goal of the Patrol Division to maintain a strong presence in Knox County neighborhoods. The Whiskey Unit is comprised of six officers who work primarily at night, and whose primary assignment is targeting DUI Offenders. The Fox Trot Unit is a separate detachment of six officers that provide an intensive three month Field Training Officer program for new graduates of the Basic Police Recruit School. These newly certified officers must first pass this rigorous course of field instruction with an FTO Officer before being placed in his/her own patrol vehicle.